

The Old Buzzard Had it Coming

By Donis Casey

Poisoned Pen Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 206 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Praise for The Old Buzzard Had It Coming. As vivid and unforgettable as a crimson Oklahoma sunset, a book to savor—lyrical, authentic, and heart-warming. —Carolyn Hart Alafair Tucker deserves to stand beside Ma Joad in literature's gallery of heroic ladies. —Tony Hillerman Alafair Tucker is a strong woman, the core of family life on a farm in Oklahoma where the back-breaking work and daily logistics of caring for her husband Shaw, their nine children, and being neighborly requires hard muscle and a clear head. She's also a woman of strong opinions, and it is her opinion that her neighbor, Harley Day, is a drunkard and a reprobate. So, when Harley's body is discovered frozen in a snowdrift one January day in 1912, she isn't surprised that his long-suffering family isn't exactly grieving. Helping Harley's wife prepare the body for burial, Alafair discovers that Harley's demise was anything but natural—there is a bullet lodged behind his ear. She's concerned when she hears that Harley's son, John Lee, is the prime suspect in...
