McDonald: Relative to His Mission to England, March 1861 Sir. Under the resolution passed by the general assembly of this commonwealth on the 10th day of March 1860, authorizing and requesting the governor, if lie should deem it expedient, to send to England a competent agent, to obtain from thence all record and documentary evidence tending to ascertain and establish the true hues of boundary between Virginia and the states of North Carolina, Tennessee and Maryland, your excellency was pleased to commission me as such agent, and by your written instructions, of date the 22d of May 1860, to indicate the service I was expected to perform. I now beg leave to report to your excellency the results of my mission. To make provision for its effectual prosecution, which, in the event of sickness or any serious accident to myself, might have been much interrupted or possibly entirely defeated, I engaged my son, William N. McDonald, to accompany me; and though never entirely disabled by ill health from the prosecution of my work, by his aid I have been enabled to accomplish at least double the amount of examination and research I could singly have made - and thus have greatly enhanced the value and increased the volume of record, documentary and historical matter; which I have had copied, and herewith return, neatly and substantially bound up in nine volumes of manuscript; and one book of rare and valuable maps. We sailed from Boston on the 13th of June, and arrived in London on the 25th of the same month, by rail, from Liverpool. At the instance of your excellency,...
