William Deans, who, as reported in last issue, has been appointed to China, was ordained to the holy ministry at Wilton, Hawick. The Rev. J. Rudge Wilson, M.A., of Wilton, presided; there was a large attendance of the ministers of the Presbytery, and the church was crowded in every part The Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee addressed the young missionary and the people. Mr. Deans is highly recommended, and is believed to be a man who will be a great strength to the Mission. He has had considerable experience in Home Mission work under the Rev. James Anderson of Old Kirk parish, Edinburgh. God willing, he sails on 25th January, before this reaches the reader. The Committee hope to send out also a medical missionary before the end of this year. A work of grace...
