Fire Administration, 1990-1992 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)128308745 Subject: Fire investigation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . finterviews, project personnel requested copies of a wide range of reports and documents, including: 0 Hiring announcements 0 Standard operating procedures 0 Fire investigation reports 0 Job descriptions 0 Organization chart 0 Monthly and annual reports 0 Internal memos 0 List of equipment 0 Job performance evaluation forms 0 Training records The schedule for site work was standardized. First an orientation meeting was held with the chief elected or appointed official of the community, the Fire Chief or Sheriff, and the unit commander. We explained what USFA wanted to accomplish, how the unit was chosen, and what was desired to be achieved. After the orientation meeting TriData met with the unit commander, followed by separate interviews with the fire investigators and police officers. Then a meeting was held with the prosecutors office. This schedule reflected the natural flow of an investigation--beginning with the officials who politically and monetarily sustained the unit, and ending with the agency that tried the...
