Dear Reader, My message to you in this story is one of utmost importance. In the days to come, it will become harder and harder to be a Christian in this world that is rapidly losing its fear in God. Stay strong and faithful. And trust in the Lord. In post World War III America, Micah and his wife, Lauren Hunter, wake up on what seems to be an ordinary morning, but that quickly changes. Blaming religion as the cause of the war, the president has announced all religious practices to be illicit and an act of terrorism. Suddenly finding themselves on the run, Micah and Lauren must fight for survival as they encounter the nightmares outside their home. Paul has lost everything. The presidents announcement is only a green light for him as Paul leaves his home to join the purge. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
