Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 222 pages. Jason is single and has been for all of his 32 years. Its depressing. But not as depressing as being told by his mother that he looks like Humpty Dumpty after the accident. With a face that not even his own mother can love, its hardly surprising that hell try anything to get a woman to go out with him, even if its only for a single date. With little interest in anything other than his quest for a woman and a nice bit of cod and chips, Jason needs to think outside the box if hes going to find someone wholl give him a chance. Along with Barry his best mate Jason comes up with the only thing he thinks will work: dating a blind woman. However, to do that, he needs to pretend hes blind himself, which is a lot harder than you might think especially when guide dogs are so hard to come by. Eventually Jasons efforts pay off and he meets Emma, a pretty professional with a host of friends. When he takes her out, they instantly hit it off. But will Jason be able to fool both Emma and her best friend Jerry into thinking hes blind With everything to play for, Jason faces the biggest challenge of his life, and nobody especially not him can see how itll all turn out.
