Excerpt: . . . department, besides the preparatory course, the course of study extending over four years in the former and three years in the latter. Among the principal regulations either issued or revised during the present year may be mentioned those relating to competitive examinations prescribed by the Department of Education. According to these regulations, all higher schools either revised or abolished all provisions relating to entrance examinations previously prescribed in their respective school regulations. In the 2nd Higher School, regulations relating to the distribution of school business were revised. New regulations for day-pupils were also established. As regards regulations for entrance examinations, candidates for French laws or French literature are made to undergo the said examination in English or French, and those for German literature in English or German. In the 4th Higher School, for French is prescribed besides English and German in the 3rd department exclusively. In the 5th Higher School, the course of study to be imposed on candidates for French literature were cancelled. In the engineering department, attempts were made to extend the work of experimental manufactures. Persons were specially appointed to take charge of the manufactured articles and previous regulations relating to the process of applications for the manufactures were revised. In the 7th Higher School (Zoshikwan) supervisory regulations for day-pupils were prescribed. In the Yamaguchi Higher School, special examinations were abolished and the term examinations reduced in number. School equipments in higher schools show no great difference from what had been mentioned in the last report....
