This dividend was adopted by a general meeting of the company, held on the 17th of May. The balance sheet was submitted to the directors of the Agra and United Service Bank, the company's bankers, and was examined by their accountants. The bank then advanced them upwards of 21,000 towards the payment of the dividend to the shareholders, although their account was already overdrawn to the amount of 5000. The dividend received by Mr. E. P. Stringer, the managing director, in respect of his shares, amounted to 3560. The termination of the civil war in America, by the success of the Federal government, caused the failure of the company, the cotton appropriated to them in the Confederate States being all destroyed or captured, and the debt due from the Confederate government turning out worthless. The company was accordingly...
