She grew up in a beautiful lakefront home like some kids could only dream about. On the outside, her family looked picture perfect, but there was a deep, dark secret that only her parents and brother knew about. As she got older, it just became too much.so she ran. Shannon Worr was born the youngest of twelve children, but as a result of the sins of her father, the family has been divided. Being a survivor of childhood sexual abuse, Shannon has endured tremendous suffering. From a young age, she experimented with drugs and alcohol and spent time on the streets and in prison. Through her experiences and her discovery that a victorious life can only be found in Jesus, Shannon has emerged from her painful past to become a professional horse trainer and riding instructor as well as a dog and cat groomer. Shannon, her husband Paul, and their three children all love and serve the Lord.
