THE OPENED DOOR: THE STORY OF THE FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLAND (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Opened Door: The Story of the Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church of England The year 1912 was a great year in China and India: a great year in India, because of the King s visit; a great year in China, because of the wonderful Revolution; a milestone year to us also, because of the celebration of the jubilee of the Presbytery of Amoy, and the happy union of the two Presbyterian Churches in Formosa. This has therefore seemed an appropriate time for the issue of a brief sketch of the history of our missions for wide distribution. Missions in India are certain to profit by the allaying of unrest which has followed the King s Durbar announcements. The new rulers in China are pledged to the removal of every religious disability. Most of the active spirits in the establishment of the Chinese Republic have, indeed, been pupils in Mission Schools; not a few of them are avowed Christians. A new day is dawning for the Christian Mission in the far East - day of unexampled opportunity, day of tremendous peril; day, therefore, of most urgent summons to the Christian Church to conduct its Mission enterprise on a new scale of heroic self-sacrifice. Our own Church has earned the distinction of a Mission Church. It must not fall from this grace in a marvellous, appealing time. W. D. February, 1913. The Mission Staff: 31 Ministerial Missionaries, 20 Medical Missionaries (including 4 Lady Doctors), 6 Lay Missionary Teachers, 34 wives of Missionaries, 2 Certificated Nurses, 29 W.M.A. Ladies (not including the Lady Doctors), resident at 15 centres. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of...
