This is the last part of my diaries seriously. . . i could not write an autobiography as the memories are too much to bear so i gave the minimum and threw out the rest where it belongs. Im smiting the past with exploring arts like i use to starting with literary arts then i am moving my way across the canvass to do performing arts as well as visual. Now, math and science books are a challenge for me and not in a hard way but to see if i can truly work all by myself. Thats right I said it all by myself. Lots of laugh. . . in the last part of my diary explains how i came up with a method to build my own business and economy up from scratch but not too much in detail. My design was more of tribalism, and thought pattern more of geometry. I have my own axioms and perception plus truly life has this thing about thinking on your own but then again life is not just people telling you what and how to which way to go nope. Life is free and so in this book i wrote down how i was going to be free with a Queen of my life. Queen of my life echoes and no she do not respond back and it is okay. Like an elephant i remembered though i will not be sad about it rather i go on solo pursuing to master mind I as Me and just have fun with arts, math and science. My will is no longer about surrendering to societys ways. . . i do not want to...
